

This is the first announcement for 2011 CAFA Annual Election.

The 2011-2012 CAFA President, Vice President, and four members of CAFA Board of Directors (will serve the term 2011-2014) will be elected.

In order to make the election process fair and efficient, all voting will be performed only through emails.

The Election Committee, created by CAFA Board of Directors, would like to proceed as follows, step-by-step, with deadlines:

1. The election will start with the nomination process on September 26, 2011 12:00pm, through October 5, 2011 12:00pm. Please follow the Nomination Guideline (Please see the attached document) in this process.
2. The Election Committee will verify and confirm these nominations and collect nominee's biographies and portrait pictures (picture is optional) from October 6, 2011 to October 15, 2011.
3. On October 16, 2011, the Election Committee will post a list of candidate's names along with their brief biographies and pictures (if provided) onto CAFA website for CAFA members to vote.
4. The voting will be open to all CAFA members from October 16, 2011 noon to October 25, 2011 noon (Voting Guideline will be sent out by then).
5. The Election Committee will count all the valid ballots and then announce the final voting results by October 30, 2011.

The Election Committee members will stay neutral in the election process with no expressed bias toward or against any candidate. All election-related information sent to or received by the Election Committee will stay confidential within the Election Committee during the election period. The Election Committee reserves the sole right to interpret any and all election rules, and the sole right to change the election dates if necessary.

CAFA will not grow without your participation. Now it is the time to use your right to nominate and to elect people who you trust, can serve CAFA and our community in next one/three year(s)!

If you would like to nominate candidates for CAFA's President, Vice President and member of Board of Directors, please send the following nomination email to the CAFA Election Committee at election@cafanc.org before 10/5/2011 12:00 noon:
